I: numbered lists in one series were published both independently and as advertisements in The Celator, apparently occurring as either the one or the other, or both simultaneously. The separata are characteristically n.d., but their year can often be deduced from the appearance of adjacent numbers in The Celator.

* The numbers held in this library in The Celator are distinguished below by the month of issue in brackets, e.g. "[Jun]".

II: numbered lists not in I were published independently. They are not the same as the lists of series I, though they bear the same numbers.

* auction catalogues 1978-1983, with the exception of 11 Oct 1979, were dated only on an inserted slip, not on the catalogue itself; in our copies most of these slips are missing. The year of issue can be determined from the legal confirmation of deposit, printed at the foot of the last page of the catalogue. More precise dates below were provided by PG and the BCD library. The catalogue can usually be differentiated by the total number of lots, as given below ("/000").

1978: 20 May, /679; 2 Dec, /781;
1979: 11 Oct, /1274; 15 Dec, /2309;

“Lists” throughout, though largely Buy or Bid auctions: {Small general}

* the seriation is confusing:

a) apparently an early attempt to isolate Lists by Roman numerals, but by no. 18 they have become Arabic. Undated, the dates here below derived from postmarks.

b) a second sequence, of largely numbered Buy or Bid auctions [*] with a few undated Lists [FPL] intermingled in the same sequence...

c) ...within which a sequence 15-18, of slick paper, illustrated on cover, undated but one with mss. date

[1976]: FPLno XI; FPLno XII;

[1977]: FPLno XV;

[1978]: FPLno 18 [not to be confused with the later 18 below];

* includes both catalogues issued under her own name,
and as expert for others.

* The scarce and erratic numeration appears to refer only to auctions conducted in the firm's own name.
It appears only on catalogues that are "perfect-bound", which have a spine on which to print the number. The catalogues which are simply stapled have no spine, and apparently are not numbered within.

DUPRIEZ, Ch., Brussels

* from at least no 83 onwards the issues are overtly numbered, lists and auction catalogues in a single series. The lists are n.d., and can only be located within the overt chronology of the auction catalogues. Also, the numeration of both lists and auction catalogues is not simple, given the insertion of supplements, so named; or of numbers repeated with bis or ter, or with successive letters of the alphabet. And some late lists are unnumbered (and n.d.) anyway.
