* The seriation below of the auctions of J. Florange, Jules Florange, and Florange and Ciani to 1929 follows the schedule printed in Jules Florange's list, Monnaies Grecques et Romaines, Françaises royales, féodales provinciales, Napoléon I<sup>er</sup> et sa Famille, Domination française a l'Etranger, n.d.but apparently [1931]. But it is deeply unreliable: (A) the figures for number of lots and plates are not always correct. (B) the seriation runs accurately by year, but not chronologically within any given year (e.g. 1902, nos 23, 27, 24 in that order). (C) a few sales in this library, indicated here by ●, are omitted from the schedule altogether.

GAETTENS, R.A., Heidelberg; from 1959 or 1960, Lübeck, Germany
-- son of the scholar R. Gaettens (sen.) who was in business partnership with the dealer RIECHMANN

* Riechmann disappears after his last auction in 1934.
Richard Gaettens (sen.), his associate in A. Riechmann & Co., survived the war and moved to Heidelberg where his son, Richard GAETTENS jun., began his own numismatic business. His auction catalogues are labelled as of "Richard Gaettens" (4-5, 7, 11) or "Richard Gaettens jun." (1-3, 6, 8-10, 12-13). Whether this is just editorial variety, or an indication of the father sharing the business with the son, is not known. (The son's later auctions and lists issued in Lübeck are all under the simple name
"Richard Gaettens".)

What purports to be the final auction of A. RIECHMANN & Co.
(q.v.) was conducted in Heidelberg in 1959 by "Richard Gaettens", whether father or son, perhaps as an act of homage to the original firm, which had actually closed twenty-five years earlier. The contents were literary -- the library of the Sammlung Julius, whose coins and medals were sold under the name of GAETTENS.

Gaettens jr. continued to use the name of A. Riechmann & Co.
in Lübeck on his own lit. lists.

GLENDINING'S, London

Lists: {Small general}
1996: no 1, decorations
* wanting 1997 no 2

Auctions:

NB: H. E. Manville and T. J. Robertson, British Numismatic Auction Catalogues 1710-1984 (1986), erroneously attribute to this library a great many earlier Glendining catalogues which actually are not to be found here.

NB: Beginning early on, the prices realized at auction were reported by reprinting the auction catalogues (some? all?) after the sale with the prices realized inserted as marginalia. In the later years of this system an illustrated catalogue was often reprinted unillustrated.

- (oi) original illustrated
- (ou) original unillustrated
- (ri) reprint (priced), illustrated
- (ru) reprint (priced), unillustrated
- (oi pr), (ou pr) -- prices are hand-written in the original catalogue.

In this library, when both the original and the prices-realized reprint are illustrated (oi, ri), or both are unillustrated (ou, ru), we have usually endeavoured to acquire only the reprint (i.e. including both the prices realized and the illustrations where produced). When the original was illustrated (oi), but not the reprint with prices realized (ru), we aim to acquire both.

Reprinting of the catalogues ceased after 1973 when the customary independent Prices Realized List was introduced.

NB: from 1955 through 1993 the individual catalogues of coin sales are numbered serially through the year; but sales of medals, orders, militaria etc. are unnumbered, until given their own seriation -- 1M etc. -- in 1989-1993.

NB: * the complete set of the 13 parts of the Lockett coin auctions (1955-1961) is boxed separately. For Lockett lit. see 6 October 1950 above.

* see also BALDWIN: THE NEW YORK SALE

* A single numbered series for both numismatic and non-numismatic sales (manuscripts, autographs, stamps, collectibles). This library does not hold the non-numismatic catalogues, but they are included in the listing below, indicated by curly brackets, {no 3} etc., so as to make the number sequence comprehensible.

From 2005 many individual numbers are represented by two or more catalogues, e.g. 32.1, 32.2 -- not always so indicated on the covers of the catalogues themselves but usually distinguishable within by the several sessions.

Numbers in square brackets [32.1] etc. indicate numismatic catalogues, largely of US material, that exist but have not been acquired by the Museum.

“sess.” = session(s)
