HAMBURGER, L., Frankfurt am Main, Germany

List: {Large general}

1934:

Auctions: {Large} have...23-74, 76-98 [32 missing]

-- seriation of the catalogues is taken from Tietjen 20.

-- NB: the catalogues are numbered overtly only from no 93, and that number is itself in error since more than 92 sales had preceded.

Tietjen and Lubeseder agree in inserting nos 1A, 1B and 1C between 1871 and 1889. Their two sequences agree through 1 Mar

1910. But Tietjen originally omitted 27 Sep 1910, later inserted as no 44A = Lubeseder 45; Lubeseder numbered 2 Sep 1925 as 75A =

Tietjen 75; so that the two sequences disagree from 21 Nov 1910 through 2 Sep 1925. – The numbers given here are Tietjen's.

The Heritage website, www.heritagecoins.com, provides a running list of sales held -- "Permanent Auction Archives" -- covering both public and on-line auctions for the years 1993 to date. It includes the sales' running numbers most of which are not otherwise available since they did not begin to appear overtly on the catalogues until late in 2002.

* Information below kindly provided by Brian Koller of Heritage.

On-line sales. Printed catalogues are not produced. For the record here, on-line sales occur in three groups, each with its own five-digit numeration comprised of: code [1] (for code number see below)/final digit of year [1]/month [2]/number of sale within month [1].

Thus auction 25093 = 2/5/09/3 = Exclusively Internal (code "2")/2005/Sept./third auction. On the renewal of the count in January of each year the first sale is therefore x/x/01/1 = (code/year/Jan/first sale), not xx001. Given the nature of the five-digit numbers there is no proper seriation.

Continuous Internet Auctions (code 6)

began 2004: no 64111, 6 Nov

2005: no 65011, 1 Jan

Exclusively Internet Auctions (currently code 2)

began 1999: no 10002, 19 Sep -- to 10006

then taking in the century date:

1999: no 19104, 2 Nov

2000: no 20011, 4 Jan

Internet Currency Auctions (code 3)

began 2000: no 30022, 29 Feb

Mail Bid Sales were distributed by post, and consisted of 3-8 pages. None of them is in this library. The known dates of sale were:

1997: 28 Feb; 28 Oct;

1998: 20 Jan; 30 Sep;

1999: 14 Jan; 30 Jul

"Bullet Sales" were in recent years held much more frequently than public auctions. They were numbered in series with the regular "Sale" or "Signature Sale" auctions, beginning with [no. 60], 16 Feb 1990, continuing to no 385, late 2005, when their title was changed to "Online Session". They consisted almost entirely of US coins certified by PCGS, etc. Printed catalogues were issued, but are NOT included in this library save for nos. 241, 315 and 383.

NB: The library does not attempt to acquire Heritage sales given exclusively to US cents and half-cents

-- seriation of the catalogues for 1993-date is taken from the #Heritage website, Permanent Auction Archives (PAA).

Note: (1) that the sequence is irregular: many numbers were never used, those used are not always in strict sequence, and a few previously passed over were used subsequently out of sequence (e.g. no 277 and 320).

(2) that the date assigned to each sale in PAA is the closing, not the opening date, and therefore does not coincide with the date as given below.

NB: at some point between the previous and the following sale the numeration of the individual lots in the catalogues was revised, so as to begin in each catalogue with lot no 5001 rather than no 1, except as indicated.

* from this point on the seriation is difficult:

On the lot numbers --

(1) Many catalogues begin now not with lot 5001 but arbitrarily with some other x001, or even 11001 or 14001.

(2) A catalogue in a group bearing a single auction number may begin with a lot number apparently following on from a preceding catalogue (no 360, Chouinard, lot 30141); or may start over with xxx1 (no 336, lot 4001);
or may begin a new series with xxx1 even in the course of the session (no 349, lot 8001).

(3) Regardless of the opening lot number the sequence of lots as they were offered for sale is not necessarily regular. Thus auction 360 begins with lot 5001, but leaps both forward to later numbers and backwards to earlier ones over the several sessions: a higher sequence of lot numbers may precede a lower, between sessions or within a single session (no 360, Hoffnagle). That is, the arithmetical succession of lot numbers bears no necessary relation to their sequence within the actual auctions, or of the catalogues. See e.g. no 360, where the coins were sold in the order as set out below.

(4) The lot numbers may not be a full sequence but only a selection of the numerical series (no 360, Chouinard, Hoffnagle, Hugon).

On the catalogue numbers --

(5) In 2002, between July and November, the catalogues began to be provided with an overt serial number on the cover, beginning, in our library, with no 304. Sometimes however quite separate catalogues were issued with the same serial number and date, often to select and highlight a particular consignment. Such a separate catalogue can be independent, or can be (but is not necessarily indicated as being) abstracted from another. Thus no 360 Cincinnati reproduces one segment of no 360 vol II. Therefore it is not possible to determine from the serial number and date alone how many different catalogues were produced for a given auction. By way of example, this library holds no fewer than eight different catalogues of auction no 360, FUN, 12-15 Jan 2005, representing all? or part? of six sessions.

(6) The same catalogue number can occur for different dates (no 360); the same date can produce different catalogue numbers (nos 310 and 311).

(7) Finally, as noted above, the sequence of catalogue numbers is irregular and incomplete: many were never used; while those that were used are not necessarily in order: auction 324 is later than auction 326; and auction 277 is later than auction 609 (a different series), which itself is later than auction 358.

NB: As previously, each catalogue below begins with lot 5001 except as otherwise indicated

Lists (1): {Large}

NB: The library holds a single bound volume containing Hoffmann's periodical Le Numismate (1862-1865) (below, Num) as well as four of the series of loose inserts issued with it, for which see below (were there also inserts for Greek and Roman coins?).

Though independent as issued the inserts are paginated to the periodical until the latter half of 1862; unpaginated thereafter. All are undated as issued, but the Fitzwilliam volume bears manuscript dates for the whole of the inserts.

Each series of inserts bears its own title, with its own seriation of lots.

KOLBE, G.F., Crestline, CA

* this is complex. The sequence is:

- (1) early numbered lists (1977-80); followed by
- (2) one unnumbered Dutch auction (15 Feb 1983); followed by
- (3) "The Numismatic Bookseller" (1984- ), which begins bearing vol/number, subsequently bears just /number; and which is sometimes
  - (3a) a list; sometimes
  - (3b) a mail bid sale (1985-89), numbered in sequence with
- (4) mail bid sales which are not part of "The Numismatic Bookseller", and which also are numbered in sequence with
- (5) public auction sales, which include
- (6) New York auctions originally held jointly with Spink (1982-96), on which Kolbe's numeration is followed overtly for nos 13-23, thereafter covertly. For the details of that series see below.

New York auctions, held originally with SPINK (1982-1996)

* The New York auctions were overtly numbered four ways:

[a] no 1-2: triply, as joint, Kolbe-sequence and Spink-sequence; then

[b] no 3-6: doubly, as joint and Kolbe-sequence, (no Spink-sequence); then

[c] no 7-15: singly, only joint (sales 7-15), though Kolbe-sequence is implied -- e.g. between Kolbe numbered 49 (Oct 1991) and 51 (Jun 1992) the joint sale of Dec 1991 is counted as Kolbe [50]; followed by [d] no 16: Kolbe without Spink, with implied Kolbe number [71].

* with SPINK {Large}                      have 1-16
